

OUR PRODUCT

-We are KSAM-

We are a company that is responsible for the recycling of masks by means of machines that separate textiles to reuse them and create products with them.

We use containers placed at points of interest to collect the masks that we will later recycle.

Our mission is to be a facilitator between consumer goods companies and customers to channel joint actions that improve the environment and society.