

COST STRUCTURE

Our principal priority in terms of having to use money is for making the main product, of course, the special recipients and make them to be able to grow in different types of plants and sizes, also We would need financial support in creating the natural graveyard, even if It is a potential future tourist place, every place has to be made first. Also We would need ways of showing our product to the world, publicity.