

9. Get to know your customs (perfect customer)

The customers we are looking for are both agriculturors that live in the countryside and need to sell their products and families or restaurant, inns... workers that want to buy high quality fruits/vegetables and are interested in helping local agricultures and eco-friendly business . We are also looking for our customers to have knowledge about using technologies as the buying-selling will be possible with an app.